Amended Clause of the Contract.

Date _____

By signing the contract you customer (1) and customer (2) agree to any and all of the terms listed in the contract. You customer (1) and customer (2) understand for any reason you customer (1) and customer (2) cancel the event you customer (1) and customer (2) lose your deposit and are required to pay Anywhere Sound 50% of the agreed upon balance owed to me the day of the planned event within (14) calendar days of the agreed upon event date.

The deposit and signed contract is your protection and you're guarantee that Anywhere Sound will be there to provide the services (DJ entertainment) agreed upon. Meaning the day you choose to have Anywhere Sound provide DJ services to you that date is blocked off in my calendar for you. In the event you choose to cancel the said event date without this amended clause I would be without work/additional work for that day and could have booked that date with someone else.

I agree to the terms outlined in this amended clause of the contract.
